CHOLERA'S MARCH.

An Outbreak in Italy—The Situation at Toulon and Marseilles.

Desperate Defense of a Prison Warden by a Pardoned Convict—Hoodlums in Paris—Foreign Notes.

Rome, July 1.—The report that the cholera had broken out in the town of Saluzzo, Piedmont, Italy, has caused considerable excitement in this city. The government has telegraphed the authorities of that town to make a strict inquiry into the facts regarding the introduction of cholera there, and to establish extraordinary sanitary regulations in order to stamp out the epidemic. The government has since received a report from the officials there, stating that one death from cholera occurred in that town; that there were three well-defined cases, and that the scourge was introduced by Italian fugitives who had evaded the sanitary cordon here established along the Alps, and had brought the disease to Saluzzo. The death reported was one of the above-mentioned fugitives.

PARIS, July 1.—The official report of the ravages of the cholera at Toulon telegraphed here is more distressing than any yet received, as it shows that the scourge, instead of decreasing in violence, has increased. The report says that there were nine deaths from the disease Monday, and that fifteen fresh cases were reported to the authorities during the twenty-four hours.

The reports from Marseilles are of a gloomy nature, and show that the disease has increased in violence there also, seven deaths and several additional cases being reported during the twenty-four hours. The panic among the residents still continues, and every body who has the means wherewith to leave the city is doing so, some of the poorer classes even leaving on foot and making their way to the surrounding country in order to escape the contagion.

ALGER, July 1.—The action of the Spanish authorities in subjecting vessels arriving at Spanish ports from Algeria to quarantine has created a bitter feeling against the Spaniards residing in this city. The Spanish consul has been so alarmed at the excitement it has occasioned that he has requested his fellow countrymen to remain indoors as much as possible, fearing their presence on the streets might result in their being handed roughly by the lower class of Algerians, who are very severe in their denunciations of the Spaniards. The authorities here have, as a reprisal for the action of the Spanish officers, decided to quarantine vessels arriving from Spanish ports.

Desperate Fight with Convicts. LONDON, July 1.—One of the most thrilling scenes, and at the same time an unprecedented one of brutality, was witnessed at the Brixton prison at Freetown, sixteen miles from Plymouth. One of the life convicts in those prisons, named Stevens, had been pardoned by the government, and as he was leaving his old quarters a gang of convicts who were at the prison, and who had been working in the quarry, taking advantage of the moment when their warden had been taken upon them in bidding Stevens goodbye, rushed upon the warden in an attempt to escape, and attempted to throw him to the ground.

In the tussle which ensued the warden's repeating rifle flew in the direction of Stevens. He immediately seized it, and to the surprise of his recent companions he opened fire on them, shooting six of the convicts, who had on disarming him, been in the act of attacking him. Stevens, who is a powerfully built man, carried the gun, and on disarming him, he treated him in the same manner as they did the warden. The powder then gave out and Stevens, who is a powerfully built man, carried the gun, and on disarming him, he treated him in the same manner as they did the warden. The powder then gave out and Stevens, who is a powerfully built man, carried the gun, and on disarming him, he treated him in the same manner as they did the warden.

"Jew-Baiting" Condemned. ALBANY, July 1.—The Spanish consul in this city has taken a decided step against the Jew-baiting which has been going on here, and which led to serious riots Sunday. He has publicly declared that he will expel from this Spanish quarter in this city any Spaniard found guilty of Jew-baiting, or taking an active part in any proceeding having for its object the destruction of the property of Jews, or otherwise continuing the agitation against that class of residents.

PARIS, July 1.—A most disgraceful scene occurred in Pere Hyacinthe's church, in this city, Sunday. While the reverend gentleman was delivering a sermon, the first since his return from America, a party of drunken men entered the church and attempted to drown the preacher's voice by unceremoniously yelling and drunken incoherence. The noise and confusion created by the disorderly crowd attracted the attention of the police, who entered the church and endeavored to restore order from the confusion. When the police were restored and the services were continued.

Orphan Asylum Burned Out. NEWPORT, Ky., July 1.—Fire broke out in St. Joseph Catholic Orphan asylum, situated about six miles south of this city. The building burned fiercely, and at 2 p. m. was a total wreck. It was presided over by Sister Maria, assisted by her sisters of Notre Dame. There were fifty-four boys in the asylum. They all had time to save the most of their clothes, which they carried with them a foot to Newport, and were temporarily quartered in Wedgerton's planing mill. Loss, $15,000; insured, $10,000.

Both are jewelers and reside in Dayton, but manufactured the coin at Osborn, where Ostermeyer had opened a jewelry store as a blind. They have been making good counterfeit halves and quarters for six years. Detectives have been working on the case for two years. Ostermeyer and Hoffer were caught by the second bottle here absolutely cured her. She has not had so good health for thirty years.

A Grand Discovery. Mr. Wm. Thomas, of Leavenworth, Iowa, says: "My wife has been seriously affected with a cough for twenty-five years, and has been treated by every doctor and remedy known to man, but without any benefit. She has used many remedies without relief, and being urged to try Dr. King's New Discovery, did so, with most gratifying results. The first bottle had been used very much, and the second bottle has absolutely cured her. She has not had so good health for thirty years."

Resolved to Reduce Wages. NEW ORLEANS, July 1.—The sugar-planters of Terrebonne parish met at a meeting, at which every planter in the parish save one was present, resolved to reduce the wages paid all hands engaged in the production of sugar an average of 25 per cent. This step was taken in consequence of the low price of sugar, due to the overproduction of the world, and the tightness of the money market, which prevents merchants from advancing money for the cultivation of this crop. As the wages paid exceed $8,000,000 annually, this will amount to a reduction of $2,000,000 a year. The Terrebonne resolutions are likely to be adopted by the largest sugar planters of the world. The laborers on the plantations seem willing to accept the reduction in wages in view of the great reduction in the price of sugar. In consequence of the latter a very large amount of sugar is still held by the merchants in New Orleans, who hope for some advance in price.
